wreckage effected by members of the Opposition party to-day in their successful efforts to prevent the opening

A quarter of an hour before the time and Owner of Hotel Theatre appointed for the commencement of Ticket Stands Passes Away. iness the Opposition mustered in full strength. Not one of the Government's supporters had arrived, and the Opposi-Yacht Club, died at his home. "River-ous terms, shouted at the "Hungarians neoted who could perform such shameful ser-

The Deputies then approached the platform and a scuffle with the guards President's table, smashed the tables and chairs and destroyed the platform and distributed the broken pieces among the Deputies, who, thus armed, attacked the gwards, and after a brief fight drove

The desks were then tora down and interior of the House was practically completely wrecked. None of the peral members ventured inside the House, and the Opposition members, after completing the ruln, established themselves on the site erstwhile occupied by the Presidential rostrum.

The Liberals have been summoned to conference to decide on their course of action.

The demonstration was due to the opposition to Premier Tisza, who has been fighting the obstructionists vigorously and who recently declared that: 'The nation will decide between us

'The nation will decide between us and will crush any one attempting to deprive it of conditions indispensable to its progress and development."

In anticipation of trouble at the opening of Parliament Premier Tissa decided to appoint a Parliamentary Guard of forty exceptionally stalwart men recruited from the gendarmerie in various parts of the country. These men were brought to Budapest, were specially uniformed, sworn in and placed at the disposition of the President of the House. This step served further to incense the members of the Opposition party.

Later it was announced that the sit-dings of both Houses of Parliament ar-minged for to-day had been postponed antil to-morrow. The members of the Opposition party then left the House un-der the leadership of Count Apponyl, the leader of the Opposition, and Fran-iss Kossuth.

Deputy Commissioner Farrell Rogers, Pert & Company. Says Department Building in Brooklyn Is a Menace to Life opposite City Hali-942 Broadway, cor. 18th. and 140 to 148 4th Ave. and 54 West 33d 8t. in Case of Fire.

Having concluded that the building ocupied by the Brooklyn Police Department is a fire trap, Deputy Police Commissioner Farrell made up his mind today to call the attention of the Building Department and the Fire Department to the condition of the structure. The building is at No. 269 State street. The Brooklyn Police Department moved into it last July. Before that time it has an office on the third floor, became uneasy upon noticing that his windows are not connected with a fire-escape He made an investigation which resulted in the discovery that there is only one fire-escape on the building and tha is in the rear. It leads down into a "light well," from which the only exit through an iron door, which is always kept locked. In case of fire, persons who sought safety by way of the fire-escape might become penned in the bottom of the "light well" with little shance of escape.

The building is a five-story structure. pine, and since the Police Department took possession numerous wooden parcitions have been added, which adds to the danger from fire.

Ordinarily there are more than 100 persons in the various offices of the all it fits and wears. Police Department, but this number is greatly increased on trial days, when there are from 200 to 400 policemen and witnesses in the trial room on the top floor.

Should a fire start while one of these crowds was in the trial room Mr. Farrell believes there would be great loss of life. "For my part," he says, "I might jump, as my office is on the third floor, but it is quite a long jump."

Mr. Farrell believes that the owner of the building will be compelled to supply the house with fire-escapes which can be reached from every room.
